Blair Thompson Russell

Memorial Scholarship

Award:

Up to $1000 payable to the university, college, junior college, trade or vocational school on behalf of the recipient, following proof of acceptance.

Entries will be judged by a Selection and Review committee comprised primarily of family members. Recipient will be selected based on adherence to prescribe criteria, meaningful content and clarity of essay, and strong character as demonstrated through letters of recommendation.

Donor:

Blair Thompson Russell was a 2001 graduate of Bartlesville High School. She was active in choir, dance and national Honor Society, voted “Most Likely to Succeed” by her graduating classmates. She was a National Merit Scholar and an exemplary student. She lived a robust life of strong values, refusing to succumb to the pressures of her peers or her own limitations. She was tragically involved in an automobile accident in July, 2006, that took her life. At the time of her death she was teaching High School English, one of her passions. She found great fulfillment in helping the struggling student to succeed. She spent many lunch hours, as well as after-school hours with those students who might fail otherwise. One student wrote, “I received my diploma because of her!”

Eligibility Criteria:

- Bartlesville High School Graduating senior.
- 2.5 GPA
- Demonstrated strong moral character and citizenship during high school years
- Overcome personal obstacles in his/her life but demonstrated academic dedication throughout
- Attending university, college, junior college, trade or vocational school

Application:

- 2 letters of recommendation – one from BHS faculty – one from community member
- Typed personal essay explaining obstacles that have been overcome and areas of personal growth as a result of these challenges.
